

WHERE TO FIND

FREE ART SUPPLIES

So you want to create, you want to make art, the next question is, well where do you start?

One place to look when planning your work, is your neighborhood - that's where the found objects lurk.

KinderArt.com

HOME IMPROVEMENT STORES

carpet tubes
carpet scraps
end of roll
linoleum
mis-tint paint
wallpaper books
paint chips
fabric scraps

APPLIANCE STORES

large cardboard boxes from fridges, stoves and washing machines

FLAG OR SAIL MAKERS

extra bits of fabric or canvas

GROCERY STORES

corrugated cardboard
vegetables for printmaking
berry baskets

FURNITURE MAKERS

scraps of wood or mismatched bits of hardware.

NEWSPAPERS OR PRINTING COMPANIES

end rolls of newsprint

YARD SALES

kitchen utensils
flower pots
costume jewelry
plexiglass
old yard sale signs

FRAMING SHOPS

matboard or foamcore scraps in different sizes and colours

HARDWARE STORES

mis-tint paints
pvc pipe
cardboard
drywall scraps
nuts and bolts

NEIGHBOURS/FRIENDS

post a wish list on community bulletin boards

Finding found objects isn't as difficult as you might think. The items on this list can often be obtained for free. You just have to ask!

KinderART®